DEMONSTRATIVE .- The delegation of thir teen, headed by a widow lady from Hamilton, toudous county, which came to this city Tuesday evening from Washington, where they had teen to see Postmaster General Key, to indue; that official to reconsider bis determiration to appoint Mr. Hoge postmaster of Hamilton, were very demonstrative in the post the of this city. Failing their endeavors to receive the influence sought for, and surprised to find that there lived a man with soul so dead, who could refuse to sympatheze with a fellow creature who was longing to enter the holy state of matrimony, they became very in ligoant, and threatened that they would reveragain vote for Mr. McKenzie for Concress. It is right hard that a man should be deprived of the blessings of a wife just because the United States Government, in one of its whims, decines to bestow that which would scare the prize. They departed without bid ding the postmaster good bye, or wishing him long life and happiness. The impression seemed to prevail among them that because the postmaster has no wife himself he don't want at y one be to have one, which of causes is not the case.

Lawyers play it, ministers play it, bankers play it, everybody plays it. At first sight the victum feels little or no interest, but if he stops for a single moment to try it the mania seizes him.
